We step into the world with a footprint, not certain where the path will take us.

Our adventures in this realm require us to leave fingerprints on all we do.

Forever an impression on all that we touch.
Leaving our handprint on the world and in our hearts
Letting go of the hands that hold us dear, leaving the love behind.

the destination
awaits you
even though
IT CAN not be seen.
continue to look out as
YOU STEP
forward, the
reward is there
if you have FAITH.

in the midst of chaos, there is also opportunity.
